

RED SOX SEIZED CHAMPIONSHIP OUT OF DEFEAT

Apparently the Losing Team in Last Half of Tenth Inning of Decisive Game, They Turned Tables and Won by the Score of 3 to 2.

GIANTS PASSED UP THEIR OPPORTUNITIES

Mathewson Became Unsteady in the Face of Poor Playing by Teammates and a Hit by Speaker and a Sacrifice by Gardner Were the Finishing Touches.

Boston, Oct. 17.—The Boston Red Sox of the American league captured the world's baseball championship yesterday afternoon by defeating the New York Giants of the National league, 3 to 2, in the eighth game of their series, having won four games, to three for the Giants, with one tie.

The receipts for the series have exceeded any heretofore held, the total attendance being 250,000, bringing in $490,833. Each player on the Boston club will receive $4,024 and each Giant $2,566. Each of the two clubs gets $147,028, while the national commission will take $49,083.

Yesterday's game was featured by errors, only one of the tallies being an earned run. Bedient and Mathewson were the opposing pitchers at the outset, the former being taken out in the seventh to allow Hendrickson to bat for him, and Wood going into the box, to be replaced at the bat in the tenth by Engle. Mathewson pitched the entire game for the Giants and pitched well, the loss of the game being due in large part to an error by Snodgrass in the tenth inning.

New York crossed the plate first, scoring one in the third inning when Bedient walked Devore and Doyle's out to Stahl sent him to third, after which Murray's double brought him over the rubber.

Boston tied it up in the seventh. Atter Gardner had filed out to Snodgrass Stahl singled to left when Murray and Fletcher allowed the ball to drop between them. Wagner's free ticket sent Stahl to second. Cady fled out to Fletcher, but Hendrickson, who was sent to bat for Bedient, rapped out a two-bagger, Stahl scoring and Wagner going to third. Snodgrass closed the inning by taking Hooper's fly.

The eighth brought no runs and the regulation ninth passed also without breaking the tie.

Closing Inning Full of Features.

The tenth, however, brought the finish. Snodgrass started by rolling out to Wood and was thrown out at first. Murray, who was the heavier hitter of the day, came to time with another double and was brought in by Merkle's single, Merkle going to second when Speaker fumbled the ball. Herzog fanned and Meyers went out, Wood to Stahl.

At this point it looked like a forlorn hope for Boston, and many Boston rooters began to leave the stand. But events were to develop quickly. Engle was sent to the bat for Wood and he knocked out a fly which Snodgrass dropped, the runner going to second. Snodgrass took Hooper's fly, but Mathewson passed Yerkes. Speaker sent up a foul fly which Merkle and Meyers allowed to drop between them, after which Speaker improved the opportunity by driving a safety into right field, bringing Engle across with the run that tied the score. On the throw-in Yerkes went to third and Speaker to second. Mathewson passed Lewis which brought Gardner up. The latter smashed a fly into right field which Devore captured, but the throw-in was so far that Yerkes crossed the plate with the winning tally. The score:

Experience Gained While In the Drug Business.

I have been troubled more or less in the last five years with kidney trouble and from the experience I gained while in the drug business and from different cases where I have sold Swamp-Root with perfect satisfaction to those who purchased it, and as I never had a single complaint regarding the medicine while I was in business, I was in a position to know that it was a great preparation and it did not fail me when I used it myself. It has certainly afforded me great relief at all times that my kidneys have troubled me, and I would not be without it. I always recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to my friends, as I believe it to be a medicine of great curative value in the diseases for which you recommend it.

Sincerely,
D. A. KOONCE,

Personally appeared before me this 13th of September, 1909, D. A. Koonce, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

C. T. HARRIS,
Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do for You Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will satisfy anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Barre Daily Times. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 14 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years. It crippled me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's." Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

SPORTING NOTES.

Mathewson and Carrigan were selected from the Giants and the Red Sox to act as adjustment committee to appear before the national commission to make formal demand for the receipts accruing from the tie game last week. For some time the two players did not appear before the commission. Mathewson pleaded his grievance but was not successful. Mathewson said that they would have as much chance of receiving a portion of the receipts as the "royal rovers" would of securing their reserve section at Tuesday's game.

John I. Taylor, former president of the Red Sox club and now a part owner, opines that the Red Sox are not as strong a team as the Athletics were last year. He maintained that they won the pennant simply because the Athletics fell down.

There is a story in circulation to the effect that "Buck" O'Brien broke training at the close of last week and spent a lively Saturday night with friends. The story also says Tris Speaker went out and extorted him from a group of foolhardy admirers.

Pennsylvania has a wealth of coaches assisting its football squad. They have a special coach for each player on the team. A rally from their present form is anticipated before many weeks as seldom does such splendid material congregate for a football squad as now on Franklin field.

Nate Wheeler, who has been considered only a fourth string man, is being tried out at quarterback at Yale. Wheeler has inspired great ginger into the team during the week.

Freddie is making rapid strides in Harvard football circles. At the opening of the year he was considered only material for the second team. This week the coaches promoted him to the ranks of the varsity and there is a possible chance of him obtaining the pivot position of the varsity when the big games come round.

John Paul Jones, holder of the amateur world's record for the mile run, declares that Tabor, the Brown runner, is the greatest miler in the world to-day. He claims that Tabor has not yet received the proper coaching and when he learns to run as he should run you won't hear of any more Joneses, Kiviat or Jackson. Jones has virtually admitted that he would lose the mile competition at the intercollegiate next spring.

DIAZ'S NEPHEW AT HEAD OF NEW REBELLION

Army, Police, and Marine Corps Stationed at Vera Cruz, Gulf of Mexico, Enlist With General Felix Diaz. Mexico City, Oct. 17.—The army, the police, and the marine corps stationed at Vera Cruz, on the Gulf of Mexico, enlisted yesterday under the rebellious banner raised by General Felix Diaz, a nephew of ex-President Porfirio Diaz.

TRIAL OF MAYOR LUNN.

Socialist Executive of Schenectady Arrested While Making Speech. Little Falls, N. Y., Oct. 17.—George R. Lunn, the Socialist mayor of Schenectady, was arraigned in police court yesterday, charged with blocking a public place. He was arrested Tuesday while addressing a crowd of striking workmen of a local mill. At the conclusion of the evidence against him, the mayor's attorney moved that the case be dismissed on the ground that the city ordinance making possible the arrest was unconstitutional. Judge Collins denied the motion, and Mr. Lunn was called to the stand. The case probably will be on all day.

Charles A. Mullen, Mayor Lunn's commissioner of public works, and Rev. Robert A. Bakeman, ex-member of his cabinet, were arrested with him. For four hours the three men were locked at Little Falls police headquarters. Late in the afternoon they were arraigned in the municipal court, and all three demanded immediate trial.

Mayor Lunn was placed on trial but at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday night, the case being unfinished, the Schenectady executive and his two companions were freed on their own recognizance until 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Lunn was highly indignant. The three men pleaded not guilty. The Schenectady executive interspersed his questioning of the policemen with speeches in defense of Socialistic theories. Mayor Lunn announced in court that the case would be fought to the end and he predicted complete vindication for himself and his companions.

Following their release the prisoners left for Schenectady. Before their departure, however, Mayor Lunn in a statement to a crowd of spectators severely criticized conditions in the Little Falls police headquarters, where he had been confined.

Needless Alarm.

A nervous man took his wife to a party, and having laid aside his things waited for her to come down stairs from the dressing room. The hostess saw him standing alone in the hall, and exclaimed excitedly: "Oh, Mr. Jenks! Hasn't your wife come too?" "Dear me, madam!" screamed the nervous man. "Nobody told me she had fainting!" And he rushed up-stairs before the hostess could explain.—October Woman's Home Companion.

STATE'S CASE NEARLY IN

Mrs. Rosenthal on Stand Yesterday in Becker Trial.

CORROBORATES ROSE IN PAST

Another Witness Testifies That Becker Said in Prison Public Would Grant Him Pardon for the Killing of Rosenthal.

New York, Oct. 17.—"When this sensation blows over, the public will give me a pension for killing that crook Rosenthal." These are the words attributed to Police Lieut. Charles Becker by James Hallen, his fellow prisoner, in the Tombs at yesterday's session of Becker's trial on a charge of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, gambler.

Hallen was one of fifteen who testified for the state.

Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, widow of the gambler, testified that Becker, her husband's alleged partner in his gambling house, had said to her on the occasion of the raid he had made on the establishment: "It's either Herman or me. This is the so-called 'fake' raid which the prosecution claims was forced on Becker by his superior officers."

Mrs. Rosenthal testified that when she buried her husband, she had only $100, all that was left her by Rosenthal. "We introduced this," said Assistant District Attorney Moss, "because it has been claimed by the defense that gamblers gave Rosenthal $25,000 or some such sum to insure his silence."

Eight witnesses in all were examined by Mr. Moss up to the noon recess yesterday. While none of them, including Mrs. Rosenthal, the widow of the murdered gambler, gave very startling testimony, they corroborated the stories of Jack Rose, Bridgie Webber, Harry Vallon and Sam Schepps.

FIRST BOMB PLOT SEVEN YEARS AGO

Records Indicate Conspiracy Originated in Bridge Strike in 1905.

Indianapolis, Oct. 17.—Records which the government charges will show that the explosions against employers of non-union workmen, preceding and following the Los Angeles Times disaster, resulted from a strike called against a bridge construction company in 1905, were identified by witnesses at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial.

Witnesses identified many letters taken from the files of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, when Frank Buchanan, Iowa member of Congress, was president of the union, with headquarters in Cleveland.

Mr. Buchanan preceded Frank M. Ryan, now on trial, as president. The Buchanan letters, the government attorneys announced, concerned only the direction of the union's interests in labor disputes, but later the situation was taken up by J. J. McNamara, after Mr. Buchanan retired. None of the letters were read.

LAWRENCE TRIAL BEGINS.

District Attorney Arraigns Three Defendants in Address to the Jury.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 17.—The trial of Joseph Caruso, Joseph Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti opened yesterday with the reading of the indictments against the defendants by the clerk of the superior criminal court here.

The indictment against Caruso alleges that while engaged in a riot with strikers at Lawrence last winter, he fired a revolver, the bullet killing Annie Lo-pizzo.

The indictments against Ettor and Giovannitti detailed certain speeches said to have been made by the leaders and which, the state alleges, so inflamed Caruso's mind that he fired his revolver.

Immediately after the indictments had been read, District Attorney Atwill began his opening address to the jury, the jury box having been filled late Tuesday. Attorney Morse for the defense was to follow.

SECOND SUIT BROUGHT.

Against James L. and Henrietta Brewer Karriek in Burlington.

Burlington, Oct. 17.—A second suit to recover $35,000 was entered in Chittenden county court yesterday against James L. Karriek and Henrietta Brewer Karriek of Washington, D. C. The suit is brought by William Ropes of Boston for himself and Charles R. Wells, trustee of the estate of Samuel S. Allen of Boston. The action is to recover on a note given the estate to secure a mortgage something like twenty years ago, and which it is alleged has never been paid either in principle or interest, the interest alleged having brought the sum to a large figure, R. E. Brown and S. R. Moulton are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Personal service was not made in the case, an attachment of the defendants' property in Charlotte being made and a copy lodged in the town clerk's office.

A similar large suit was brought against Mr. Kedrick by other parties some time ago, personal service being made while the defendant was at his summer home at Thompson's point. The defense in the case was that the debt had been discharged by the defendant's bankruptcy.

Acknowledge It.

Barre Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Barre given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this: L. H. Hooker, 101 Prospect street, Barre, Vt., says: "I doctored and used almost every known kidney remedy, but nothing did me any good. There was a constant, dull pain over my kidneys and I could sit but a short time, for it made me nervous and I would have to get up and walk around. There was a kidney weakness which was very annoying through the night. I was very bad when I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me from the first. I took five boxes in all, procured at Drown's drug store, and they relieved me in every way."

The above statement was given by Mr. Hooker in May, 1902, and when he was interviewed by a representative on August 20, 1912, he said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills and gladly confirm my former statement. They never fail to do me good when I have any symptoms of kidney complaint."

FLEW OVER CHAMPLAIN IN TWENTY-ONE MINUTES

George A. Gray and W. F. Cooper Ascended at Plattsburg and Made a Rapid Flight Over the Lake.

Burlington, Oct. 17.—Aviator George A. Gray and his assistant, W. F. Cooper, flew over Lake Champlain from Plattsburg to Burlington yesterday in 21 minutes, in a Wright biplane. Landing was effected on the Walker farm on the interval. The machine was subsequently taken to Centennial field, where exhibitions and demonstrations will be given daily until Sunday.

It was first planned to alight on Centennial field, but owing to the location there of the football goals it was not deemed safe.

Mr. Gray has appeared at Malone and other fairs in New York state and has given exhibitions in various other places. His flight and circle about the city was watched by many spectators yesterday morning. At noon, when the machine came over from the north, its presence was heralded by a whirling of the big wings that caused everyone to look above.

The machine will be left on Centennial field for the football game on Saturday.

TWO GIRLS BURN TO DEATH.

Two Others May Die—Loss $50,000 at North Tarrytown, N. Y.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Two girls lost their lives and two women received burns from which they may die in a fire that swept through a big frame tenement house in North Tarrytown early today. Thirty families that occupied the building were driven out in their nightclothes, and for a time the confusion led to the belief that the death list was much larger. The loss was about $50,000.

RED CROSS APPEAL.

Money and Nurses Wanted for Greece in Present War.

Burlington, Oct. 17.—H. S. Howard, treasurer of the Vermont Red Cross, received the following telegram yesterday from Charles L. Magee, secretary of the National Red Cross at Washington, which is self explanatory:

The Red Cross is in receipt of a cablegram from the wife of the minister of foreign affairs of Greece asking on behalf of the Greek Red Cross financial assistance and trained nurses from the American Red Cross, also a cablegram from the American ambassador at Constantinople asking the cooperation of the American Red Cross with the Red Crescent Society.

President Taft has issued through the associated press a call for contributions.
